Course Description

Designed for students of all levels, this course explores basic issues essential to those who use the figure in their work. Gesture, perspective, light and shade and working from memory are examined in relation to line and structure. Drawings from the Renaissance to the present era are examined in slide presentations with a view toward identifying underlying ideas and finding common themes and common language. The emphasis is on line to describe action, relate forms, organize shapes and define space. The classes will be held at the Piano Factory at 791 Tremont St., Boston, MA 02118. This is a twelve week course and is limited to 14 students.
